The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

WILLIAM THOMSON
PATENT EXAMINER

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: As per claim 1: Applicant argues that " Do et al. does not disclose presenting a single virtual computer data storage device to the computer operating system in place of computer data storage device with multiple communication paths" The examiner disagree since, in (Fig. 5 , paragraph 58; FIG. 6, paragraph 62-64) Do discloses a device 518 reported to an operating system that sees the device as two separate devices having separate paths in combination with a virtual device controller 578. Each of these multiples device could be a representation of a single virtual computer storage device. Therefore these claimed limitations of Do's reference meet the claimed limitation of the claim. Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers and/or figures in the references as applied to the claims for the convenience of the applicant. Applicant is reminded that rejections are based on references as a whole and not just the cited passages. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the cited art or disclosed by the examiner.

As per claim 7: The examiner notes that the amendment of this claim includes this element "selectively presenting said computer data storage devices to said upper-level drivers of said operating system of said host computer as a single virtual computer data storage device " Under paragraph 1.121 manner of making amendment in application (MPEP), when claim text with markings is required. All claims being currently amended in an amendment paper shall be presented in the claim listing, indicate a status of "currently amended," and be submitted with markings to indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version of the claims. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. Appropriate correction is required.. .
